Letters are in the mail to all former band members inviting them to attend the annual anniversary concert to be given at the school the afternoon of Jan. 26. Invite Old Grades To Play With L-W Bands

The Lincoln-Way High School Concert and Stage bands will present their sixth annual anniversary concert at 3 p.m. on Jan. 26 in the high school auditorium. Letters have gone out to all former Lincoln-Way bandmen inviting them to attend. As in the past, while all former band members are invited to be guests of the present band at both the concert and reception afterwards, the members of the 1959-60 band are special guests in this their tenth anniversary year. Selections played by that band in contest will be programmed.

An added feature this year is an invitation to former bandmen to play with the present band in the final two selections on the concert.

"While it may take a bit of elbow grease to get the dust off and the cobwebs out of the instruments, and a bit of practice to get the lip back in shape, we think they can do it", says Robert Taylor, Lincoln-Way's band director.

A short rehearsal will be held just prior to the concert, and music is being sent out as soon as applications are received.

Included on the program will be the first movement to Alexander Borodin's Second Symphony, selections from the Broadway hit "I Do, I Do", Ariane Overture, Janta A Jag and Jazz Waltz (two delightful selections by Richard Maltby), a clarinet solo by Bill Clark and a piano solo by Cindy Reinert, both sophomores, and several stirring marches.

Tickets are available from any L-W Band Member, or at the door. Price is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

L-W Sets Test Date For Next Fall's Frosh Crop

Tests for grade school pupils who will become freshmen at Lincoln-Way High School next September, will be held Saturday, Jan. 25, it was announced by Jonas R. Lashmet, director of guidance.

This annual testing program will be conducted at the high school from 8 a.m. to 12 noon. Lincoln-Way school buses, said Mr. Lashmet, will pick up pupils at the following grade schools:

Arbury Hills, Frankfort, Lincoln-Estates, Manhattan and Mokena (at Willowcrest School), and the Oakview School at New Lenox. The time of the pick-up will be approximately 7:30 o'clock.

Pupils from parochial schools will also be picked up at the public grade school in their communities.

There will be no repeat date, Lashmet said, so it is important that all students who will enroll at Lincoln-Way next fall take the series of tests. In case of severe weather conditions, the guidance director said, the testing program will be re-scheduled for Feb. 1. If the tests are re-scheduled, he added, an announcement will be made over Joliet Radio Station WJOL at the 7 a.m. newscast on Jan. 25.

An interpretation of the results of these tests will be given to the parents in early spring.

The battery will include a test of educational ability, reading achievement and language arts achievement.

The educational ability sub-test contains problems of word reasoning, verbal analogies, and number reasoning. It is designed to measure the student's intelligence, his ability to do school work.

The reading achievement sub-test measures the student's ability to understand words in context to grasp the main idea in a passage, to make inferences and to grasp significant details.

The arithmetic achievement sub-test measures the student's ability to add, subtract, multiply and divide, using whole numbers, fractions, percentages and decimals. The student's skill in solving simple algebraic equations and in using formulas for perimeter area and volume is also measured.

The language arts achievement sub-test measures the student's skills in capitalization, punctuation and grammatical usage.

Talk Of Full Time Clerk For Village Of Mokena

With Mokena growing, the village board is considering operating the office of village clerk on a full time basis. Other communities of comparable size maintain a village office on practically a full time basis.

In Frankfort the village has a contract with Walter Pfaff, the elected clerk, to serve as collector and perform other duties as well as those of his office, at a salary agreed upon.

New Lenox keeps its village hall open every day, having hired a business manager to take care of things and Orland Park hires a deputy village clerk.

Village clerks are elected but the salary is so small that no one could devote full time to the office.

At the meeting of the Mokena board last week (it was postponed from Jan. 1) there was talk about the board enacting an ordinance setting up the qualifications for candidates for village clerk with the view that the person elected would work fulltime at the job.

The attorney was not present at last week's meeting and there was no report as

Death Takes Mother of Minister

Mrs. Stella Smith, mother of the Rev. LaVern Smith, pastor of the St. Peter's Church of Frankfort, died Sunday, Jan. 5 in the Collinsville Hospital after a brief illness.

Mrs. Smith was born Jan. 5, 1901 at Collinsville.

Surviving, besides her husband Arthur, there are three sons, the Rev. Mr. Smith, William of Eden Seminary of East St. Louis, Ill., and Arthur Jr. of Collinsville, one daughter, Mrs. Louise Rudis of Collinsville, two brothers, Harry Frey of St. Petersburg, Fla., and William Frey of Detroit, Mich., and 14 grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, (Jan. 8) at Collinsville at the St. John's United Church of Christ and interment was in the church cemetery.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Smith and their three children, Harry, Linda and Paul attended funeral services.

to his opinion as to whether the board has the authority to set up standards for a candidate for village clerk. If the board could do this, some have asked, could it establish qualifications for a candidate for mayor, or trustee?

As of Monday of this week no one has taken out any petitions for any office. A mayor, village clerk and three trustees are to be elected next April. Mayor Eric Book has announced that he will not seek re-election.

Village Treasurer Durward Fant was named to confer with the finance committee relative to seeking new sources of revenue for the village.

At a previous meeting it was decided to name a budget director. The action was to have been taken last week but was deferred.

The board did vote to increase the pay of village board members who will be elected in the spring. The increase will be $5 a meeting. This will mean the mayor will get $20 and the trustees will get $15. The increase will apply only to those elected in April because the board members cannot vote to increase their pay while they are in office.

With the appearance of more snowmobiles the board is considering what steps to take to regulate them. Members believe that since such vehicles are powered by internal combustion engines they should be licensed the same as automobiles, including village stickers.

Village Clerk Alvin Sorensen was instructed to again notify owners of the Village Green apartments that garbage containers must not be left in the street, creating a traffic hazard.

Blaine Saxton, contractor who installed the water mains under the extension program, has been instructed to complete work on ditches along Wolf and Revere roads.

The police committee recommended a settlement of claims of Wayne Ryder for services as a part time policeman in December. Beginning Jan. 1, Ryder went on regular salary schedule as chief of police. In December he was to get $2 an hour but the police committee held that this was too much and recommended that the $2 an hour be limited to an 8-hour day and time put in over the eight hours be compensated at the rate of $1 an hour.

A petition was presented to the board by Roy Loebe, representing property owners along Mokena St. from LaPorte Rd. to install street lights in that section, with the use of underground wiring. It costs more to have underground wiring than the overhead type and some communities have enacted ordinances requiring that telephone and electric lines serving new subdivisions be buried.

Mokena To Get 100 More Phone Lines

Illinois Bell plans to install new telephone facilities early in 1969 to increase the capacity of its Mokena telephone office by 100 lines.

Also planned are telephone equipment changes to improve long distance calling into and out of the Mokena area.

Telephone manager Bud Schager cited these changes as signs of continuing progress for Illinois Bell in its growing Mokena exchange.

"Altho local expansion of telephone equipment necessarily was slowed by the five - month work stoppage from April 18 to Sept. 22," Schager said, "these new facilities will constitute significant additions to our local telephone plant."

During 1968, the number of telephones in service in Mokena continued to grow to more than 2,400, a gain of about 100 over the total in service at the end of 1967.

In company - wide activity in 1968, Illinois Bell announced rate reductions affecting most subscribers, as well as rate increases which should affect proportionately few.

On April 14, the company announced reductions in intrastate long - distance calling rates to bring these rates more in line with those announced for interstate calling in November of 1967. The reductions will save Illinois Bell customers approximately $450,000 annually.

On Nov. 15, Illinois Bell announced rate increases to become effective Dec. 16, for one - time charges for installing and changing telephone service.

Schager said this step was taken reluctantly to bring the one - time charges for these jobs more in line with the costs of doing them -- costs which have risen by 35 per cent during the past five years.

Letters To The Editor

ANSWERS MAYOR

Dear Sir:

I have read the article Mayor Eric Book directed to the people of Mokena.

I am the person who went to the Village Board and asked for a drain to be connected to the 18-inch tile that drains the surface water.

He did not say that I went because we were accused of closing a natural water drain - not he or his sewer and water commissioner, George Bills or any of his committee contacted us to find out if we had done such a thing.

We did not! The drain was man-made - and for 13 years we drained village water - on our property.

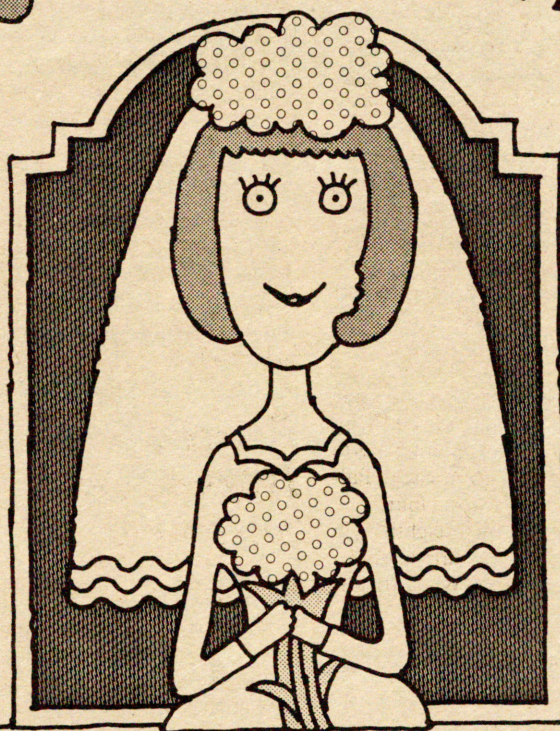

Sometime after I attended the meeting, I talked with Mr. Zugenbuehler and asked him if the board was going to put in the drain, he said no because of what my husband had done.

While I'm on the subject of Village board I'd like to tell the people of Mokena what the police commissioner, Roy Richardson said to me when I asked him why the Police squad was used to transport the policeman's children to school. My husband had seen this done. I was always told you couldn't get in trouble asking questions. Mr. Richardson told me it was none of my husband's business who rode in that squad car. Who pays anyway?

Sincerely yours,
Mary Steinhagen

There will be a luncheon at noon in the Woodruff Hotel that will include a panel discussion, according to Mrs. Robert Best, of Mokena, who is chairman of the day, who met recently with Circuit Judge Michael A. Orenic and Judge Robert R. Buchar, to plan the morning program. Judge Buchar and Judge Wilson will discuss procedures involving juveniles.

George E. Sangmeister, of Mokena, former state's attorney, will serve as moderator for the panel discussion. Members of the panel are: Howard Hill, president of the Kankakee Chamber of Commerce; Dr. Arthur Bruning, superintendent of Joliet Township High School, and a qualified representative of the Joliet police department.

The program will close at 2:15.

Reservations must be made by Friday of this week (Jan. 17) thru Mrs. Louis Veronda, 1150 Taylor St., Joliet. Any PTA member is eligible to attend. Providence Stays Open, Bishop Blanchette Rules

Providence High School at New Lenox will remain open.

Earlier it was reported that two of the 10 Catholic High Schools in the Joliet diocese would be forced to close their doors at the end of the current school year, Providence in Will County, and Immaculate Conception in Elmhurst, DuPage County. The pardon came in dramatic fashion, delivered by special messenger from the bishop.

Final decision would be announced at a meeting of the diocesan school board Jan. 13, it had been said, and, because interest in the matter was expected to draw a crowd, the meeting was held in the gymnasium at St. Borneo Seminary in Lockport Township. Some 600 parents and students, mostly from Providence, attended.

Ralph Brennan, president of the diocesan school board, arose and announced that it was the unanimous recommendation of the board members and concurred in by the diocesan school superintendent, the Rev. Niles Gillen, O. Carm., that Providence High School and -- here was a switch -- Driscoll High School at Addison, DuPage County, be closed at the end of the current school year.

(No explanation was given as to why it was decided to close Driscoll instead of Immaculate Conception.)

Then the board chairman produced a letter. It came by special messenger from Bishop Romeo Blanchette, Brennan told the audience, and had reached him just moments before, after the meeting had been called to order.

The letter amounted to a veto of the board's decision.

Every effort will be made to keep all 10 diocesan high schools open for the next three to five years, was the gist of the Bishop's message.

There were three provisions, however, which must be met if the pardon is to prevail:

1. Availability of a religious teaching staff.
2. Enrollments must not decline.
3. Both schools to continue their fund raising activities. In the case of Providence the amount necessary to be raised annually thru these activities is placed at $58,000; in the case of Driscoll it is $28,000.

The implication was that if these provisions are not met then the schools may have to close unless they should get support from other sources.

In the Chicago archdiocese it is reported that many of the church schools will close at the end of the present school year for lack of teachers from the ranks of the religious and lack of funds. When the parochial schools have to compete with the public schools on a salary basis -- and they do when they hire lay teachers -- they are at a disadvantage because they just don't have the money, it was pointed out.

Funeral services for Donald W. Barr of Joliet, were held Jan. 11 at the Hirsch Memorial Chapel, Tinley Park, with Rev. Paul H. Lechner of Zion-Lutheran Church, officiating. Interment was in the church cemetery.

L-W Taps Sandburg, 58-45

The Knights of Lincoln-Way truned back the invaders from Sandburg in a SWS Conference basketball game last Saturday night, 58 to 45.

Board control and good shooting was credited for Lincoln-Way's victory. The Knights led in every period except the last one when the Eagles bagged 12 points to their six, but it was too late then.

Sandburg has a taller team than Lincoln-Way but the Knights didn't let that bother them -- they shot over them and in the first quarter hit one eight of 14 shots from the field. The Eagles did manage to lead their hosts in that frame at one point, 9 to 6, via free throws, but that was the only time Sandburg was in front.

Horvath, of Sandburg, was high point man for the evening with 18 but no other member of that team exceeded single figures, McBride had eight, Kleinfeldt, 7, Borg, six, and Rogers and Ricjards, four each.

Webb was tops for Lincoln-Way with 16 points and Ryan was next with 10. Minger had eight points; Otto and Minger, seven each; Palka, six, and Loucks, four.

This was the eighth win for Lincoln-Way this season.

The Lincoln-Way frosh-soph made it a perfect evening for the school by taking their Sandburg contemporaries 62 to 49.

Lincoln-Way led 17 to 10 at the end of the first frame and 33 to 23 at the half. At the end of three quarters the Knights had their biggest spread, 52 to 33.

On Friday night of last week the Knights lost to Bremen in another conference tilt, 67 to 46. It was 26 to 14 at half time.

Bremen marksmen just couldn't miss. Webb had 15 points, Otto, 14; Ryan, seven; Palka, five, Loucks, three and Minger, two.

Bremen scored 25 baskets to 18 for Lincoln-Way, and 17 free throws to 10 for the losers.

Mike Derrig Jr., 10823 W. 3d St., is in Florida for about 10 days getting some advance sunshine before he reports at St. Petersburg, March 11, for spring training with the New York Mets.

There is a chance, however, that Uncle Sam might intervene. Mike has been expecting a call to report for active duty in the army reserves but as yet has had no message.

The 19-year-old Mokena youth, who played baseball at Lincoln-Way High School from which he was graduated in 1966, is a southpaw pitcher. He is 5'11", weighs 170 and can get larger.

He was drafted by the Pittsburgh Pirates after he graduated in 1966 but didn't sign up. Last year he signed when he was drafted by the Mets and after spring training began his climb in the minors.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Derrig Sr., drove out to Virginia to see him pitch but the game was rained out and that evening he was shipped up to Mankato in Minnesota, so they have yet to see Mike appear as a professional. He finished the season with Mankato and this year will step up to Miami Beach after training with the Mets.

Mike has completed one year in Joliet Junior College and plans to get in his second year there in segments.

The Lions Club had their annual twelfth night drive last Sunday. It started at 1:30 o'clock and lasted for about four hours. There was about 18 members present and some of the fellows brought their sons to help. They picked up a lot of trees. The Fire Department assisted the Lions in the burning of the trees at the Sewer Plant.

WHERE IS OUR SENSE OF PURPOSE?

The principal thing that may be said of 1968 is that it was not a particularly felicitous year. It was a year of tragedy, strife, confusion and contradiction. We had continuing prosperity for most people -- accompanied by growing domestic dissension. In Viet Nam, U.S. observers spoke optimistically about the military situation. At the same time, the patience of the American public with the war appeared to come to an end. For better or for worse, this country's armed opposition to communism in Southeast Asia may be terminated in the not-too-distant future.

It will seem to many, in looking back over the past year, that much of our trouble stems from a confusion of philosophies and labels -- a confusion that has existed for a long time, but in 1968 reached a climax. The confusion is well typified in the career of Mr. Johnson as President. He went into office with the near unanimous support of the people. He carried out his pledge. An unprecedented wave of social legislation became law. Untold billions of federal dollars have been committed to programs of health and welfare, education, urban rehabilitation, a broad war on poverty and environmental improvement. All of these things have been produced under the label of liberalism. In fact, liberalism has become nearly synonymous with the outpouring of governmental tax funds and broad expansion of government powers. This in itself is perhaps the most confusing and contradictory phenomenon of our times. Historically, liberalism is the antithesis of authoritarian government.

Many reasons have been given for Mr. Johnson's eclipse in popularity, of which the Viet Nam war ranks high. Yet, he brought into full flower the highly popular philosophy of government responsibility for solving social and economic problems. Some call it the welfare state. There is no reason to doubt that Mr. Johnson was sincerely striving to give the people what they thought they wanted. Measured by legislation, he was largely successful. Logically, he should have looked forward to tranquility and strong support. Instead, he got riots. Before the end of his first full term as an elected President of the United States, he fell so low in popular esteem he was compelled to announce that he would not be a candidate for re-election.

It is difficult to believe the Viet Nam war is wholly accountable for the sudden reversal of Mr. Johnson's political fortunes. His misfortune -- if it may be called that -- could be a symptom of national confusion in a day when love of country is considered juvenile by many, patriotism corny, and Presidents are chosen on the strength of their ability to keep everybody happy. The decline in Mr. Johnson's popularity accelerated when the cost, both in inflation and taxes, of the government's increasing dominance began to be felt.

As a new President prepares to take office, we hear a great deal about the task before him of "bringing the country together." Judgment is being withheld until people can see how he performs. Perhaps it might be well in the coming months for the people to look inward and judge themselves. Our country will become what the people make it. Unless we are ready to accept a dictatorship, we should cease expecting the President of the United States to be all things to all men. He is a fellow citizen filling one of the world's toughest and most dangerous jobs.

In the long run, the President can but reflect the philosophy and purpose of the people. We should not ask the new President to perform like a monkey on a stick. We should ask, what is our philosophy? Do we believe in a government of laws? Do we believe in local initiative? Do we believe in the responsibilities, as well as the rights and liberties of the individual? Do we believe in the American system? The future of the country depends on our answers to these questions. The man in the White House cannot answer them for us. Nineteen hundred and sixty-nine may prove to be a year of testing of people, not a President -- people who sadly need a renewed sense of purpose based on the ideals and principles of self-government.

The Artificial Sweeteners Debate

Copyright 1968 World Book Science Service

The artificial sweeteners, sodium and calcium cyclamate, were originally introduced as more palatable than saccharin for diabetics who cannot eat natural sugars.

Now they are being consumed in ever greater volume by avid weight-watchers as well. There have been long and bitter debates over the safety of these synthesized chemicals being introduced into the human body.

Most of the injurious effects found in research to date, diarrhea and some kidney damage, have been due to excessive volume intake.

The National Research Council issued a "distant early warning" in 1950. Medical Letter and Nature picked up the ball in 1964 and the Journal of the Public Health Society of Japan warned again in 1965 that the artificial sweeteners, the cyclamates, used in dietetic foods, could be harmful not only to the individual user, but also could cause birth defects (teratogenic defects) if consumed by pregnant women.

The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) however, repeatedly stated, "There is no scientific evidence available now that shows the artificial sweeteners are a hazard to the health of man.

The safety of saccharins and cyclamates has been reviewed periodically . . . they've undergone extensive toxicity testing . . .

Albany Medical College, where a team of researchers has continued the testing for the FDA, stated recently, "We have no evidence whatever of any teratogenic effect or any action on chromosomes. We can state this definitely . . ."

Even the Sugar Research Foundation, concerned for the economic protection of the sugar industry, says that diabetic children "need have no apprehension concerning the use of the synthetic sweetener cyclamate . . ."

Meanwhile, an FDA team of geneticists, working independently of the Albany College group, have found the cyclamates to have a potentially more serious hazard.

Dr. Kenneth Palmer and Dr. Marvin Legator say that cyclamates " . . . break a significant proportion of chromosomes (16.5%) in both testtube and in animal studies . . ."

Though "the studies are highly suggestive, they are highly preliminary and inconclusive," they insist. Chromosomal damage not only affects a single fetus, but could affect many generations of children yet unborn.

SUGGESTION -- Patients carefully indoctrinated before surgery as to their needs for narcotics to alleviate pain after their surgery require very little or none, reports St. Luke's Hospital, Houston, Texas.

BEWARE -- Famed cardiologist, Paul Dudley White, warns that coffee drinkers should ease up. "Those who drink four or more cups a day, like the two-pack-a-day cigarette smokers, are flirting with heart disease."

HEART NEWS -- A total of 18 million U.S. citizens require treatment for coronary heart disease of which 600,000 will die this year.

PUPILS TELL -- Dr. Eckhard H. Hess of the University of Chicago has discovered that the pupils of the eyes can give a true indication of mental and emotional activity. They dilate with pleasurable stimuli and contract with unpleasant ones.

KISSING DISEASE -- Infectious Mononucleosis, so often called the kissing disease because it usually affects young people between the ages of 15 and 25, is seldom transmitted by kissing. In fact researchers cannot yet find exactly how it is transmitted.

DEADLY FLASH

Lightning blasts through the atmosphere at an estimated rate of 2 billion flashes a year. In the United States alone, it kills one person and injures four every day. The safest place to be during a storm is in a closed car, or a steel frame building that has lightning rods.

Perhaps you've heard to microministrization and microelectronics.

Highly complex radio transmitters can now be made small enough to fit inside a tooth!

Electronic sensors also in the tooth can be connected to the radio transmitter, enabling it to send signals about what is going on.

What could a tooth say that would interest scientists? Among other things, scientists are interested in knowing more about chewing.

Forces and movements during chewing are pretty complicated. It would be very useful to know exactly where stresses and strains occur.

The more that is understood about chewing, the better false teeth can be.

How many words of five or more letters can you find in the signals coming from the teeth in the picture?

Hint: if you find all of them and double that number, you'll know how many teeth there are in a normal human adult's mouth.

ANSWERS: teeth, radio, microelectronics, signal, device, monkey, false, message, progress, movement, rapid, material, strain. 16 words times 2 equals 32 teeth in a normal human adult's mouth.

Computer Fixture In Schools

Students in at least three South Suburban high school districts will have access to computer assisted instruction beginning with the second semester of the 1968-69 year.

As part of its educational data processing (EDP) services to member elementary and secondary districts, the Educational Development Cooperative (EDC) of South Cook and North Will counties has arranged for the installation next month of a PDP 8/1 computer which can be connected to area schools by telephone line.

About 60 persons representing EDC's member districts, two colleges and two non-public high schools attended demonstrations of a similar computer operation in EDC offices in Homewood during December.

As participating high school member districts in EDC, EDC's present EDP service, students in Bremen 228 and Evergreen Park 231 will receive computer aided instruction as part of the district's current EDP assessment, except for some additional telephone line charges.

In addition, the board of education of Homewood-Flossmoor 233 recently authorized participation in the computer assisted program by arranging for exclusive use of one of the input terminals at a cost of $200 per month plus the telephone equipment charges.

At the present time, half of the available terminals have been reserved.

PDP 8/1 stands for Programmed Data Processor with eight terminals and miniaturized integrated circuits. It is a small compact computer about the size of a four drawer file cabinet and provides about 4,000 memory positions to each student using the equipment.

Installed in the EDC office, the computer will be connected to the schools by telephone line. By means of a teletype terminal, a student can converse directly with the computer in the preparation of his program and can store it in the computer or on paper

TB Fund Asks Aid

At the close of December a total of $34,002.16 had been contributed to the Christmas Seal Campaign of the Will County TB Association, and returns are still coming in.

William Randles, Christmas Seal chairman, said the Association will have difficulty expanding its program for 1969 unless another $5,250.84 is received.

The $34,002.16 figure represents contributions from 14,437 persons.

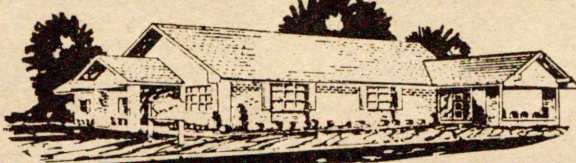

"Altho Christmas is over," Randles said, "it's not too late to get out your Christmas Seal letter and answer it now. With responses from those who haven't sent in their contributions the Association can increase its program of education, case screening and medical research, in its continuing effort to check the spread of tuberculosis. We must all share in this work, as we will all share in the benefits since TB is a communicable disease and no home will be safe until all homes are safe."

Welfare Group Backs Subsidized Adoptions

A stand in support of subsidized adoptions to "assure that no child legally available for adoption is deprived of an adoptive home for lack of economic resources," has been taken by the Welfare Council of Metropolitan Chicago, board president Irwin J. Askow announced today.

One major aim of such subsidies would be to enable well-qualified families with limited incomes to adopt children.

"Governmental and private agencies are now paying for institutional and foster home care of dependent children," Askow pointed out. "It would be better for the child, and less costly to the public, to subsidize an adoption that would place the child with a family who love and want him permanently."

Such a plan would also make it easier to find homes for hard-to-place children, such as the minority-group or older child.

However, Askow pointed out, subsidized adoptions could not be termed only as a "poor man's adoption program."

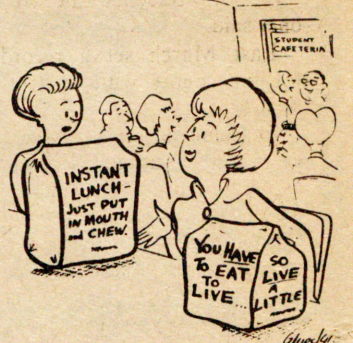

They would, for example, enable middle-income families who would like to adopt children who are physically or emotionally handicapped to cover the heavy expenses needed to provide special medical or psychiatric care for such children.

The subsidy need only be enough to cover the cost of the special services needed to care for the handicapped child.

Another form of subsidy would be a time-limited one, to be continued until the additional costs of raising the adopted child become integrated into the family budget.

Anywhere you can run wire, you can heat or cool—electrically.

Modern electric heating and air conditioning means comfort. Any way you want it. And anywhere you want it.

Electric heat lets you design the heating arrangement best suited to your home—and your needs. For instance, with a central system, it's easy to add air conditioning, electronic air-cleaning, or dehumidifying. You can even combine various electric heating systems, if you want. Or install zone-by-zone control for bathrooms or baby's room.

And if your house ever has to grow some just to keep up with your family, no need to invest in a bigger furnace. With modern electric heat, adding heating capacity for each new room can be as easy as adding new wiring.

In fact, give us enough wire, and we'll heat the world. And cool it.

You wait and see.

Credit Courses At Evening College

When Lewis College opens registration for the Spring 1969 Evening Program classes, January 16, the school will offer 34 different courses of study for college credit.

The offerings are nearly double the number of credit classes offered in the evening just 2½ years ago, in Fall of 1966.

"More important," notes Lewis registrar Brother Leo Srubas, FSC, "It's possible for a person enrolled only in evening classes to obtain a college degree. Getting the degree takes longer, of course, but the BA is just as good and just as welcome a possession when it's all over."

Area residents can apply for admission to the Evening Program now. Registration for classes is set for Thursday, January 16, 1969 from 6:30 to 8:00 p.m. in the main academic building on campus. Most of the 34 course offerings are worth four credit hours toward a degree. Tuition is $35 per credit hour.

Classes begin a week later, on January 23.

Lewis is offering the following courses in its Commerce Department: Principles of Accounting, Advanced Accounting, Principles of Economics, Business Organization and Management, Personnel Management, Statistics, three classes of data processing, Business Law, Principles of Marketing and a course in Marketing Research.

Education courses include Tests & Measurements, Secondary Methods and the History & Philosophy of Education.

Three English classes will be offered: Rhetoric & Composition, Composition and Literature Types and a class in Modern Drama.

In the fine arts area, Lewis will offer a course in visual arts. A history course, Modern America, will meet one night each week during the semester.

Language courses include two Spanish classes and a course in Intermediate Russian.

The Philosophy Department is offering a class in The Philosophy of Man and one on the History of Contemporary Philosophy.

Four political science courses will be available, including State & Local Government, Government in Illinois, American Political Parties and a course on American Political Thought.

A Tests & Measurements course is available from the Psychology Department and a class on Christian Marriage will be conducted in the Theology Department.

Three sociology courses are to be offered, two of Introduction to Sociology, and a course on Social Psychology.

For information on when the classes meet, write The Registrar, Lewis College, or phone 838-0500.

1968 Traffic Toll In Will Co. Shows Drop

Traffic deaths in Will County last year totaled 81, the second highest count in the county's history, according to Coroner Willard G. Blood.

The highest toll taken in traffic accidents was 96, which was recorded in 1967.

Coroner Blood said that the high toll of the past two years was due principally to multiple deaths occurring from accidents on the expressways. Wrong lane usage, with resultant chain reaction type of collisions, has accounted for most of the multiple deaths.

Fog and smoke have also combined to cause similar types of accidents, the coroner said.

Last March set a record for the county with 16 traffic deaths.

In some instances, where wrong lane usage is given as the cause of accident, drivers entered controlled access highways on ramps intended for exit and so were traveling the wrong way on one way roads.

Of the 81 deaths last year, 30 of the victims -- 37 per cent -- were "loners," which is to say that only one car was involved. The driver loses control -- maybe in some cases he fell asleep -- and the car goes off the pavement and strikes some fixed object or rolls over.

Two of the persons who died of traffic crash injuries in Will County last year were injured in accidents outside the county, while three Will County residents died in highway accidents outside Will County.

The number of persons injured in traffic accidents in Will County in 1968 totaled 1,745, which was 375 less than the 2,120 total for 1967, according to the records of the Joliet Safety Council.

The number of traffic deaths for the other years in the decade were:

1966--72
1965--75
1964--64
1963--48
1962--51
1961--61
1960--41

While bad weather appears to increase the number of minor automobile accidents there are fewer crashes with fatal results. Drivers apparently are more careful when driving conditions are hazardous, it was said, and travel at slower speeds so when cars do collide they are not torn in pieces.

Don't worry if you don't hear music. It's a gas room heater.

Gas room heaters have changed. They're smaller. More efficient. And they come in all sorts of new attractive shapes and sizes—even contemporary styles that appear more like tv or stereo consoles than room heating plants.

And new gas room heaters have never been easier to install.

You don't even need a chimney. Any outside wall with a small hole for venting will do just fine.

Gas room heaters are easier on the budget, too. There isn't a more economical form of energy than gas to keep that hard-to-heat room comfortable.

Take a look at new, modern gas room heaters at your Northern Illinois Gas office or local heating contractor. You'll see—for heating that extra room—practical doesn't have to be ugly.

State C of C Bows To Income Tax Advocates

As a last resort in solving what appears to be an impending fiscal crisis in Illinois, the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce announced it "reluctantly" will support a flat-rate state income tax, uniformly applied to both corporations and individuals.

Announcement was made today (12-30) by Illinois State Chamber President William J. Crowley at a press conference called to explain the State Chamber's position.

In announcing the Chamber's willingness to accept a uniformly applied flat-rate income tax, Crowley said support of such a tax would be contingent on the General Assembly simultaneously approving and submitting to the state's voters an amendment to the Revenue Article of the State Constitution which would authorize the elimination of inequitable provisions in the present tax structure and limit the kind and magnitude of any permissible state income tax.

Crowley, executive vice president of Northern Illinois Gas Company, Aurora, said the State Chamber commends and wholeheartedly supports Governor-elect Richard Ogilvie in seeking increased governmental efficiency and expenditure control, as well as his efforts to secure additional federal funds with fewer restrictions.

"However, after all efforts to control spending and increase efficiency have been exhausted and after maximum utilization of all state and federal revenue sources, it appears there still may be a need for substantial amounts of additional revenue," Crowley added. "In this event, despite longstanding policy of consistent opposition to a state income tax in Illinois, the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce reluctantly would support enactment of a flat-rate state income tax with certain limitations."

The limitations stipulated by Crowley were that the tax should:

1. Be at the lowest possible rate to produce revenue sufficient only to meet minimum necessary revenue requirements as determined after exhaustive executive and legislative review.

2. Apply at the same rate to corporations and individuals.

3. Be levied at a base similar to the federal income tax for convenience and economy in administration.

"Care should be taken to avoid discriminatory provisions and to minimize the possibility of the tax being declared invalid on constitutional grounds," Crowley said. He pointed out there seems to be little doubt among legal experts that an income tax is permissible under the state's present constitution.

"Illinois' present tax structure is not equitable and any permanent modification should seek to increase its fairness, but our current state constitution limits the power to remove many inequities. For this reason, any attempt to offset personal or real estate taxes against an income tax is futile until a new Revenue Article is adopted," said Crowley.

"Since an income tax would be a last-resort tax and the revenue it would produce might not become available immediately because of litigation, there should be no reduction in or elimination of present revenue sources until revenue from new sources is actually available," Crowley added.

Recognizing a constitutional convention will meet later this year, Crowley said to submit a separate Revenue Article amendment to the electorate while a convention is in progress is neither impracticable nor inconsistent because--

1. The convention will deal with a multiplicity of highly controversial subjects. If a separate Revenue Article receives popular approval, the convention can concentrate on other complex subjects.

2. A Revenue Article developed by the Legislature could serve as a starting point for the convention's deliberations and could be withdrawn if an equally acceptable or improved proposal were developed by the convention. A duplicated approach also would generate additional public interest in constitutional revenue reform.

The State Chamber's board of directors approved the proposal for financing Illinois government on recommendation of the State and Local Taxation Committee of the 20,000 member state-wide business organization.

Committee Chairman John E. Hogan, Jr. said the committee conducted a year-long, intensified study of Illinois' fiscal problems, which included solicitation of suggested solutions from hundreds of State Chamber members and others throughout the state. Hogan is manager of state taxes, United States Gypsum Co., Chicago.

Illinois residents who have served with the Armed Forces in Vietnam may be eligible for a $100 bonus from the state, reports the Illinois State Bar Association. Survivors of deceased Illinois residents whose deaths were connected with service in Vietnam are eligible to receive $1,000 in compensation.

No payment can be made to either a veteran or a survivor though, unless the person eligible to receive compensation applies to the Illinois Veterans Commission prior to July 1, 1970 -- unless the cut-off date should be changed during the current session of the legislature.

Veterans of World War II and the Korean War and survivors of deceased veterans of those wars also received compensation from the state, but not until after the end of those wars. The Vietnam Veterans Compensation Act passed by the 1965 legislature was the first such act to be passed while a conflict was still in progress.

In order to be eligible for a $100 bonus, a Vietnam veteran must:

1) Have been a resident of Illinois for at least 12 months immediately preceding the time he entered the service;

2) Still be in active service, be honorably separated or discharged from the service, have been furloughed to a reserve status or be retired from the service;

3) Have served in Vietnam after January 1, 1961, and have received the Vietnam Service Medal or Vietnam Expeditionary Medal.

The widow or widower of a deceased Vietnam veteran would have the first right to receive the $1,000 death compensation from the state. Other survivors who might qualify for compensation if the $1,000 is not collected by a spouse would be a deceased veteran's children, his parents or former guardians, and his brothers and sisters, in the order named.

If the beneficiary who would ordinarily be most qualified to receive compensation fails to file a proper claim before the deadline, the compensation can go to the next most qualified beneficiary who has filed a timely claim.

Soc. Sec. Explains Disabled Benefits

William T. James, Social Security district manager at Joliet, announced publication of a new edition of the popular booklet, "If You Become Disabled". Copies of this new booklet may be obtained by calling, writing, or visiting the Joliet social security district office at 225 North Chicago Street, Joliet, he said.

This booklet will help correct a number of misconceptions about the disability insurance program, James said.

He said that 1,588 disabled workers and their dependents, in the Joliet district are receiving monthly payments under the social security disability insurance program. The payments amounted to $141,734 for the disabled worker and his family in October.

Most disabled workers hope to return to work. Their social security benefits are income replacement to help tide them over until they can go back to their old jobs or be trained to do some other job. When a worker applies for social security disability insurance benefits, he pointed out, he is considered for rehabilitation services by the vocational rehabilitation agency of the State of Illinois. This agency provides counseling, training, and other services that the worker may need to help get him back to work, all at no cost to him. The State and Federal Governments foot the bill, he said.

James said that the booklet, "If You Become Disabled", also emphasized the point that even though the disabled worker returns to work despite a continuing severe condition, his benefits may continue to be paid during a trial work period. This will give him a chance to test his ability to work. And, even after that, if the worker has a flare-up of his condition that forces him to stop working again, benefits may again be started without any waiting period.

COOK COUNTY
DELINQUENT

ORLAND TOWNSHIP

OFFICE OF COUNTY TREASURER OF COOK COUNTY AND EX-OFFICIO COUNTY COLLECTOR OF COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS.

Advertisement and Notice of Collector of Cook County of Application for Judgment against Delinquent Lands and Lots for General Taxes for the year 1967, and for Order of Sale Thereof, and Notice of Sale Thereof, and application for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest, as provided by law.

NOTICE IS hereby given that the said Collector of Cook County will apply to the County Division of Circuit Court of Cook County on the 31st day of January, A.D., 1969 for judgment against lands and lots hereinafter described as being delinquent upon which taxes remain due and unpaid, or personal property taxes charged thereon, as noted in this advertisement, remain due and unpaid, for said taxes, interest and costs and for an order to sell said lands and lots for the satisfaction thereof according to law (excepting from said judgment and order of sale the cases which are included in this advertisement for sale only under former un-executed judgments and orders for sale as may be noted in this advertisement).

Notice is also given that an application will be made for judgment fixing the correct amount of any tax paid under protest.

Notice is further herein and hereby given that on the third Monday next succeeding the 31st day of Jan., A.D., 1969, to-wit, the 17th day of Feb., A.D., 1969, at the hour of 8 o'clock A.M. all said lands and lots hereinafter described for sale of which an order shall be made, or has been made and not executed as noted, will be exposed to public sale at the County Building of Cook County where the seat of County government is located in said County, for the amount of taxes, interest and costs due thereon respectively.

The following is a list of delinquent lands and lots upon which the taxes remain due and unpaid, the name of the owners, where known, the total amount due thereon (excluding delinquent special assessments separately advertised) and the year or years for which the same is due.

(The total amount due in this application on each tract or parcel of land or lots is the sum of the amounts appearing due in this advertisement.)

EXPLANATORY NOTE - In this list in all places where no other notation is made the figures in the column headed "$" (meaning dollars) and the "cts" (meaning cents) represents the taxes due and unpaid for the year A.D., 1967. Where the letter "F" is placed to the left of the figures in this column it is intended for an abbreviation of the word "forfeiture," and denotes that the amounts set down to the right of the same are the amounts due and unpaid on said lands and lots for which said lands and lots have been previously forfeited to the State. When back taxes are extended they are indicated by the letters "B.T."

Payment of taxes made after printer's copies are sent to publishers for listing, and appearing as delinquent in this advertisement, will be satisfied in judgment records before sale.

In lieu of legal description used heretofore each parcel of land or lot is designated by a permanent real estate index number.

In the permanent real estate index number system the area is designated by the number appearing in the column headed "A," in sub-area by the number in the column headed "SA," the block by the number appearing in the column headed "Blk," and the particular parcel by the number in the column headed "Pcl."

Comparison of the permanent real estate index number with the legal description of any parcel may be made by referring to the cross indices maintained in various County offices.

Published by order of County Collector of Cook County, Illinois.

Place $30-Million Freight Car Order

Over one thousand Thrall Hi-Cube and Hi-Density boxcars worth nearly $30 million have been ordered for railroad pool service for economical transportation of automobile sub-assemblies between parts and assembly plants. Announcement of the $30 million order was made by R. L. Duchossois, president of Thrall Car.

"Automobile production is projected to reach 9.3 million units next year," commented Mr. Duchossois. "This 1,000-car Thrall-built fleet now under construction will help make this expansion of the auto industry possible."

"Just eight years ago, the railroad's share of automotive product shipping was about 8 percent. Today, railroads handle just under 50 percent of this auto industry lading," he said.

The 1,000 boxcars currently in production were ordered by a group of major railroads. They are being fabricated by Thrall in their multi-plant facilities in Chicago Heights.

A privately-held firm, Thrall has more than 1,100 employees and an annual volume which makes it one of the nation's largest rail car manufacturers.

Eagles Finish Second In Kankakee Tourney

By Keith Pnasek

The Eagles led by hot-shooting ace John McBride captured second place in the 19th annual Kankakee Christmas Holiday Tournament. Sandburg routed Chicago St. Ignatius and Kankakee Westview before succumbing to Kankakee Eastridge in the finals.

The Eagles fought a rugged battle with St. Ignatius in their first game before finally coming out on top 60-55. The lead exchanged hands for most of the game due to a rigid Ignatius defense that kept Sandburg from making the game a romp.

The Eagles were given a surprise by senior John McBride who showed signs of blossoming into an all-round player. McBride led all scorers with 26 points; John Sloan cashed in on 18 points. McBride also led the team in assists with five and in rebounds with nine. Sloan and Steve Kleinfeldt grabbed seven and five rebounds respectively.

In the semi-finals the Eagles displayed what a well-balanced team could do when they overwhelmed a fine Kankakee Westview team 60-50. Sandburg took a first quarter lead of 16-11 but relinquished it when Westview surged forth and took a one point half-time lead of 30-29. In the third stanza both teams played even, each scoring 12 points in that quarter.

Then in the fourth quarter the Eagles ran wild as if sparked by some unknown force. During this onslaught the Eagles outscored Westview 19 to 8. The fiery Eagles were led by the steadily improving John McBride, who even though sometimes double-teamed, scored 16 points, and grabbed 12 rebounds to lead the team in both categories.

Two other players exhibited fine shooting ability were senior Steve Kleinfeldt and junior Bob Borg who scored 12 points apiece.

Coach John Wilson was extremely pleased with his team's performance in that they never gave up and that the whole team had quite a spirit. Wilson also commented that he was glad that Westview was keying on McBride because that gave the other players a chance to be open to score the easy bucket.

In the championship game Eastridge concentrated on stopping McBride and the Eagles could not come up with a man to pick up the scoring. During the first half the lead see-sawed back and forth and ended with a 24 all tie. The Eagles, in foul trouble at the half, could not gather a sufficient attack and fell seven points behind at the end of the third stanza. The breaking point of the game came when the Raiders scored seven straight points in less than one minute.

In defeating the Eagles, Eastridge utilized on 25 free-throw attempts by making 18; the Eagles made only 8 out of 15. Both teams shot poorly from the field, Sandburg shot 37% and Eastridge shot 38%.

Steve Kleinfeldt took scoring honors for Sandburg by scoring 11 points, McBride, Sloan, and Richards had 10, 9, and 7 points respectively. McBride and Sloan grabbed eight rebounds while Kleinfeldt recovered seven.

There were two conference games held around the Christmas vacation. Sandburg came from behind to defeat Oak-Lawn 58-56 after being down by 13. In last Friday's bout between Homewood and Sandburg, the Eagles were soundly beaten 79-55. John McBride displayed exceptional marksmanship as he sank his first four baskets all from more than fifteen feet out. John took game honors with 26 points.

L-W Area Teachers To Have Workshop

Lincoln-Way area teachers will devote Monday, January 20, 1969, to the study of four topics of unusual interest. Kindergarten through grade 12 teachers from public and private schools in Lincoln Estates, Arbury Hills, Frankfort, Mokena, Manhattan and New Lenox will meet at Lincoln-Way High School. Subjects they will consider are: the student with special learning disabilities; one method used successfully to assist such students; an appraisal of the role of the teacher in the total education of the child; and a basic technique for teacher self-assessment.

Miss Charlotte Larson, teacher consultant for the Joliet Public Schools, will speak on "Learning Disabilities." She brings to her audience an unusual background of training and experience. She started the first public school class in the United States for perceptually handicapped brain-injured children. She has since become a supervisor and special education consultant for District No. 86 in the areas of brain-injured, emotionally disturbed, socially maladjusted, as well as educable and trainable mentally handicapped. She has also taught at the Universities of Syracuse, Roosevelt, Northern Illinois and Purdue.

In addition to her teaching and lecturing commitments, Miss Larson has found time to serve on the White House Committee for Children and Youth, and to develop, with three colleagues, a set of materials published for children with learning disabilities.

She will be followed by Miss Donna Obrecht, Director of a model program for Motor Facilitation in the Wheeling Public Elementary Schools. Miss Obrecht, with her assistant, Kenneth Ward, will explain and demonstrate how developing large and small muscle systems in the body can improve learning.

While the elementary school teachers are engaged in this section of the program, a separate offering has been planned for the secondary teachers. They will be addressed by Dr. Arlo Schilling, president of North Central College, in Naperville, on the topic "Confrontation: The Whole Teacher - The Whole Student." He will develop some ideas on what role the teacher plays in the total education of the student.

Dr. Schilling will be followed by an able panel who will react to his talk and answer audience questions. Panel members are: George Sangmeister, former State's Attorney; the Rev. Robert Gibson, Jr., pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Joliet; Mr. and Mrs. Rutledge Holleman, parents of a teenage boy; and Eugene Duff, professor at the College of St. Francis and a Joliet Councilman. The panel will be moderated by Jonas Lashmet, Director of Guidance at Lincoln-Way High School.

After the two separate programs, one for elementary and one for secondary school teachers, the institute day planners designed a last segment of the day which will be spent together on the subject of "Teacher Self-Assessment." Mel Johnson, director of the affective dimension program at Wheeling High School, Wheeling, Ill., will conduct this portion of the day. His wide experience as a teacher, counselor, and administrator qualifies him for the unique position of helping teachers to examine their own classroom behavior.

Dear Friends:

A good question to ask here is, "who's progress?"

Joliet Federal's progress or your progress? The answer is - both Joliet Federal's and yours because as a saver or borrower . . . a mutual owner, you are Joliet Federal! You are what makes things happen; your patronage, trust, confidence and friendship. And so, in taking a look at 1968, we see a year of growth and achievement and the arrival at the goals we talked about at the beginning of the year.

During 1968 Joliet Federal achieved and surpassed 150 million dollars in assets and celebrated this in conjunction with Illinois 150 year sesquicentennial. It was also the year Joliet Federal announced quarterly dividends to you and the year we introduced two excellent high earning savings certificates. 1969 will see the completion of our new 180 car parking deck, another step forward in the progress of Joliet Federal and downtown Joliet.

Since our progress is a reflection of your progress, it gives us great satisfaction to present this statement as a report of our mutual success during 1968. We are looking forward to serving you during 1969, as serving you well is our most important job.

Sincerely,

JOHN B. FIGEL

President, Joliet Federal Savings
